Twain Financial Partners

Project Summary

The Philadelphia Energy Authority, Twain Financial Partners and SHIFT Capital executed the first project in Pennsylvania to use Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy (C-PACE) financing. SHIFT Capital is borrowing $1,500,000 in C-PACE financing from Twain Financial to pay for energy and water efficiency upgrades to the commercial portion of a new mixed-use development in the Kensington-Harrowgate neighborhood of Philadelphia.

J-centrel provides 30,000 square feet of ground floor commercial space, including retail storefronts, spaces for entrepreneurs and artists, and an accelerator for local businesses. J-centrel aims to be the most civically-engaged building in the City of Philadelphia. The C-PACE financing is being used to pay for measures that will reduce the building's operating costs. The project includes the complete renovation of the existing two buildings on the property which previously housed "Diamond Furniture" and a former textile mill. The ground floor of each building is dedicated to studio space that will be leased, subdivided areas based on user needs, and the upper floors will be converted to loft-style apartments. C-PACE financing is restricted to energy and water efficiency measures for the commercial spaces only.

C-PACE in Philadelphia

C-PACE is a financing tool that allows commercial property owners to borrow money for energy efficiency, water conservation and clean energy projects. C-PACE provides long-term, competitive terms that can help Philadelphia's commercial property owners save money while reducing their utility bills and carbon footprints.
